Largest Circulation and Best Advertising Medium in Alpena County.

Wednesday, June 23, 1886.

The Republican Senate has refused to confirm the nomination of John C. Shields, as Chief Justice of Arizona, but can give no good reason for such action. We believe Mr. Shields to be both honest and capable, and his rejection must be owing to lies circulated about him and personal hostility from Senator Conger, who is now serving his last term.

Cost of the Wars.

Register Rosecrans has written a letter to Congressman Warner in reply to a question from that gentleman asking the expense to the government of our three principal wars. Gen. Rosecrans replied that the sum assumed and paid by the government for the War of the Revolution was $6,000,000, the War of 1812 cost $115,000,000, the Mexican War $135,000,000, and the War of the Rebellion $9,189,920,905.—Free Press.

The attempt of the Democrats in Congress to carry out the wishes of the people they represent, by removing some of the tariff taxes, was defeated on the 16th. The majority against considering the tariff tax bill was 17. Some 35 Democratic congressmen so far forgot their duty as to vote with the Republicans against the bill. The Democratic party pledged itself to reduce the tariff taxes as far as it was able, and but for the desertion of the 35 protection Democrats, the party would have carried the bill through the House of Representatives and thus fulfilled its pledge. The party has, however, made an honorable attempt to fulfill its pledge, and it can not be held responsible for the desertion of the 35 protection Democrats who refused to carry out the party principles. One hundred and thirty-six Democrats and four Republicans voted for the reform, and one hundred and twenty-two Republicans and thirty-five Democrats voted against the reform. All the Michigan Democratic congressmen, we are glad to state, voted for the consideration of the bill that was to reduce the tariff taxes.

There is only one thing for the Democrats to do, and that is to drive all the protectionists from their ranks, and, next fall, elect enough congressmen who can be depended upon to carry out the principles set forth in the platform. The wishes of the party, as set forth in the platform, must be obeyed.

"A flour mill in operation," said a Minnesota miller, "is almost as dangerous as a powder magazine, and has to be watched as closely. Every coal miner is afraid of fire damp, and every miller knows his mill is likely to be blown up with a terrible explosion at any moment. To most people this would sound like an exaggeration, but I tell you it is a solemn fact. What blew up your mills in Barelay street a few years ago? What leveled a whole block of stone mills in Minneapolis not long since, so that it looked as though a cyclone had struck the city? Nothing in the world but flour—one of the deadliest and most powerful explosives known. "If you stand in a flour mill, near the stones, and look across the room toward the sunlight, you will see that the air is loaded with fine grain dust. If you had microscopic eyes, you would see yourself surrounded with small atoms of grain of all kinds. Those atoms form an explosive substance more powerful than any known to nihilists, and their presence, though inevitable, is what makes a flour mill as dangerous as a powder pit. Suppose you take a dry ear of corn and set it on fire. It will burn slowly. Shell the ear and fire the kernels, and it burns much more rapidly. Grind the corn, and it will burn like paper. Reduce it to powder—to dust—and if ignited it goes off like a flash. That is the state in which flour is dangerous, when it is finer than flour. If a mill becomes overcharged with this dust, and it is ignited, away goes the mill. "Several years ago the large Washington mills in Minneapolis caught fire. They were going at the time. Those who knew the danger gave the alarm and got out as lively as they could. "Did the mills blow up?" "I should say they did. The walls were made of stone, six feet thick, and when the explosion came they tumbled out like straw bales. The sheet-iron roof was blown so high from the force of the Washington mills that the wind carried it two miles. Men watching the fire at a distance were blown through windows, knocked down, hurled through the air, and several were killed. Sometimes the lighting of a pipe within a grain house will demolish the building. In a Scotland mill a man once lit a cigar. In a second the room seemed filled with fire and there was a terrible roar. When the smoke cleared away the flour walls of the mill lay flat on the ground, and the roof lay several hundred feet away. With the exception of a bad scare and a singeing not a person was hurt. The dust burned creating a great heat."

Hillman.

Correspondence of Argus. Daniel Crowley, died Saturday June 20, after a short illness of inflammation of the lungs. The Board of Supervisors met this week. The McQueen boys returned home from their visit to Canada last week. There is some talk of having a picnic at Brush Lake on the Fourth of July. Mrs. T. Johnston had a picking bee on Wednesday last; there was a large number of ladies present and had a very pleasant time. The crops look good, since last weeks rain.

Montmorency Items.

From the Index. A colony of five or six Frenchmen have just bought land about two miles north of J. D. Hubert's where they will soon settle with their families. The several men from Alpena, who have of late been prospecting in this county with a view to settling here, have about settled their minds on certain descriptions in this and Mont Township. County Treasurer, W. C. Cain, set out 120 trees the past spring, putting a quantity of muck from a swamp around each tree to protect the roots from the sun, and after a lapse of several weeks, but two of the number have died. John A. Holmes states his intention of soon moving his mill to a point near his homestead, about one-and-a-quarter miles from here, where he will saw about 500,000 feet of lumber for himself, and then move to Hillman, in case this field should not be occupied. Robert Rea has commenced moulding brick in his yard a short distance from this point, and we are told that when the kiln is ready for the market it will be sold out at the rate of about $8 per thousand, which is less than one-third of what they cost pulled in from Alpena.

Presque Isle News.

From the Presque Isle County Advance. Nine new cottages have been put up already at False Presque Isle this spring and summer. Ed. Fisher expects to start his mill at Thompson's Harbor next week. He has a stock of 800,000 feet to cut. Fred. Lincoln is making preparations to try his luck fishing in Canada waters. He will probably leave next week. The Bully Bros. have constructed and placed on Grand Lake a steam scow, to be used in towing logs, picking up cedar, etc. E. Erskin, Sr., has returned from visiting at Sanilac. He states that a lawyer and a doctor of that place will next month come to Rogers City on a prospecting tour with a view of locating. Capt. Wm. Sims, of Presque Isle Harbor, launched his scow on the 9th, and is now busy fitting her out with sails, etc. Capt. Thos. Quick will command her. She will be used for trading along the shore. Merritt Chandler will erect a starch factory on his place in the town of Allie. He has planted 20 and Mr. Shaw 7 acres to potatoes, which will form the principal ingredient of the starch manufactured. While coming from Hagensville to Crawford's Quarry, Saturday evening, Wm. Hornbacher encountered in the middle of the road an old bear and a cub the size of a rabbit. They took to the woods and escaped. The bridge across the North Branch of Thunder Bay river, on sec. 24, town of Meltz, was lately swept away by fire. The highway commissioner promptly let the contract for a new structure to be built at the expense of about $500. The first one cost $500. The Presque Isle Brick and Lumber Co.'s mill, at Bell, has received extensive repairs and improvements this spring, and it is to-day the best mill by odds in the county manufacturing lumber, lath and shingles. It started up Monday and will run night and day through the season; employs 70 men, has a stock of 9,000,000 ft. of logs to saw, and cuts an average of 70,000 ft. per diem. The logs are for the most part the property of Alpena parties who lumbered last winter on Grand lake.

Supervisors.

The Board of Supervisors met on the 14th. The Committee on Equalization's report as to the assessment of the city and townships for State and county tax was accepted, and is as follows:

Bills were allowed as follows: Officers' fees, $115; supervisors' wages, $61.32; books, stationary and stamps, $62.90; copier's, witness and jury fees, $22.63; jail, $18.00; miscellaneous bills, $12.39. The coroners were notified to employ the county physician when a physician's services were required at inquests, and that the county will not pay for services of other physicians. Supervisors Sanborn, McDonald and Fitzpatrick were appointed a Committee on Poor. J. D. Turnbull was appointed to represent Alpena county at the meeting of the State Board of Equalization at Lansing, on August 16th.

IN MEMORIAM.

To the Hon. the Common Council of the City of Alpena:

GEORGE W. HILLMAN.—Your committee appointed to draft resolutions expressing our grief at the death and intelligence of the sudden death of our Mayor, would most respectfully beg leave to report:

Whereas, Our city was startled on Friday the 18th inst., by the sad announcement by telegram of the sudden death of our Mayor, the Hon. Charles W. Hillman, at Pittsfield, Maine; and

Whereas, This Council and city has lost in this sad and sudden bereavement its chief executive officer and wise counselor, and its community one of its oldest residents and honorable business men, and society a number that was highly respected; and more than all have the family been bereft of one who filled a large place in their hearts; as a kind husband and indulgent father he was loved and revered in his home. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the sadness of this hour we extend to the family of the deceased our heart-felt sympathies in their sad bereavement; and that this Council go in a body to the home of the family to offer our sincere condolences to the family residence. Also that we invite all city officers to join with us and attend the funeral services, and that the Recorder be requested to issue a proclamation requesting that all business as far as possible be suspended during the hours of the funeral service. And be it further

Resolved, That this Council Room be properly draped for thirty days, and that the outside of the City Hall be also appropriately draped for the same period; and that the Recorder be requested to furnish a copy of these resolutions to the city press, and also to prepare and forward a copy to the bereaved family. And that we may show due respect to the memory of the deceased, be it

Resolved, That we now adjourn to the call of the Recorder.

Club List.

Parties desiring to save money can take advantage of the following club list at this office, for journals for 1886:

Argus and Weekly Free Press $2.25
Argus and American Agriculturist 2.50
Argus and Godey's Lady's Book 3.00
Argus and Peterson's Magazine 3.00
Argus and Dore's Magazine 3.00
Argus and Scientific American 4.00
Argus and N. Y. Weekly Star, 2.00

Peterson's Magazine for July is brimful of beautiful things. The first embodiment, "The Rival Belles," representing three lovely women, is a steel-engraving in the highest style of art, and alone worth the price of the number. It is followed by a double-sized colored steel fashionplate; by an exquisite colored pattern, a-la-Japanese, for a portfolio-cover; and by some fifty wood-engravings of fashions, embroidery, etc. The high character of "Peterson's" for giving the best original stories is more than maintained in this number. An unusually powerful novelet, "The Corsair's Captives," will make everyone impatient for the next chapters. Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper, has a weird story, Frank Lee Benedict a charming tale. "A story of Two Kisses" is even better than his little foreshadows. Mrs. Stephens' "Millionaire's Daughter" increases in interest and force.

Hay Fever and Rose Cold. Are attended by an inflamed condition of the lining membrane of the nostrils, tear ducts and throat, affecting the lungs. An acrid mucus is secreted, the discharge is accompanied with a burning sensation. There are several spasms of sneezing, frequent attacks of headache, watery and inflamed eyes. Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy that can be depended upon. 50 cents at druggists; registered, 60 cents. Ely Brothers, Druggists, Oswego, N. Y.

From John F. Wyman, formerly Postmaster, South China, Me. "Too much cannot be said of Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam, as it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, etc., that I have ever seen; and to its wonderful effects I owe my recovery. It is well worthy of praise, and I would advise all to use it who are afflicted."

A pure and reliable medicine.—A compound fluid extract of roots, leaves, barks and berries is Burdock Blood Bitters. They cure all diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys.

Wild Cherry and Tar. Every body knows the virtues of Wild Cherry and Tar as a relief and cure for any affections of the throat and lungs. Combined with these two ingredients are a few simple healing remedies in the composition of Dr. Ross's Cough and Lung Syrup making it just the article you should always have in the house, for coughs, colds, croup and bronchitis.
